

2001 LBJ JOURNAL OF PUBLIC AFFAIRS EDITORIAL BOARD

JOAN LIM, M.P.AFF. (2001). Joan received a Bachelor of Science, cum laude, in Mass Communications and Sociology from Abilene Christian University and a Diploma in Mass Communication from Ngee Ann Polytechnic in Singapore. She has interned in several non-profit and public institutions in the U.S. as well as in Singapore. Her interests include mass media issues, technology policy and international development.

SUSAN VERMEER, M.P.AFF. (2001). After serving as an AmeriCorps*VISTA member, Susan joined the staff of AmeriCorps to work in national recruitment and marketing, and then to develop and oversee programs at the local level in Arizona. Susan graduated from the University of Colorado with a Bachelor of Arts in English in December 1992. Her policy interests include social policy, civic involvement, and education.

WESLEY WILSON, M.P.AFF. (2001). Wesley graduated magna cum laude from Southwest Missouri State University with a Bachelor of Science in Public Policy. He served as Student Body President, worked in the Parliament of Australia, is a member of the All-USA College Academic Team, and did mission work in Congo, Haiti, and Mexico. He is interested in science and technology, political leadership, international affairs, and higher education.

STEVEN BERKOWITZ, M.P.AFF., M.A. in Middle Eastern Studies (2003). Steven graduated from the University of Oklahoma summa cum laude, where he also served for a year as the executive director of the Oklahoma Hillel Foundation. He has participated in and organized several international conferences on Middle Eastern policy held in Oklahoma, Israel, and Jordan.

WENDY BLOCK, M.P.AFF. (2001). Wendy graduated from U.C. Berkeley in 1997 with a major in Anthropology and a minor in Public Policy. Her experience includes positions in both the private and public sectors. She has worked for an Oakland City Council member, an environmental management firm and a marketing research company. Wendy's primary interests are urban policy issues. She interned at the Texas Department of Transportation and worked on air quality issues the summer of 2000.

MAX A. CASTANEDA, M.P.AFF. (2001). Max earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Environmental Science from Concordia University. He is currently employed at the Texas Water Development Board financing agency. His interests are in Texas Strategic Planning and Budgeting, Operations Research, Management Science and its application to environmental and natural resources policy in a high-tech setting.

ESTHER CERVANTES, M.P.AFF. (2002). Esther earned a Bachelor of Arts in International Studies and has experience in immigration, advocacy, community development, media, and public diplomacy. Her policy interests include sustainable development, community development, and human rights.

LAURA GRUND, M.P.AFF. (2002). Laura graduated from Union College in Schenectady, NY in 1996 with a Bachelor of Arts in Spanish Literature. She then worked in Washington, DC, for a non-profit organization and later for U.S. Senator Russ Feingold as Press Secretary. Laura's interests include local government, urban policy, and labor issues.

ROBIN MCMILLION, M.P.AFF. (2002). Robin has lived and traveled overseas and is fluent in Spanish. After twelve years teaching in the public schools, where she also represented teacher concerns, Robin entered the LBJ School, and is currently a Spanish Instructor at the University of Texas. Her interests include transportation, state and local government, and US/Latin American relations.

FREDERICK S. RICHARDSON, M.P.AFF. (2001). Fred graduated from Kenyon College with Bachelor of Arts in English. In recent years, he has worked as a communications director for Texans for Public Justice, a campaign manager for Hector Uribe for Texas Railroad Commission as well as for Representative Solomon P. Ortiz (D-TX).

SUZANNAH SENNETTI, M.P.AFF. (2001). Suzannah graduated from the University of Texas with a Bachelor of Arts in Government. In recent years, she has worked as a professional writer for Gallier and Wittenberg, Inc. in Dallas, Texas as well as a legislative aide for State Senator Florence Shapiro, in the Dallas District Office.

KATHRYN SUPINSKI, M.P.AFF. (2002). For nearly three years, Kathryn negotiated with California's largest financial institutions to promote investment and services in blighted areas of California. She has experience with research and data analysis, lobbying, strategic planning, fund raising and program management. Her areas of interest include government operations and public finance.

LAURA WOLFORD, M.P.AFF. (2001). Laura graduated Phi Beta Kappa from Reed College in 1997 with a degree in English. She has worked most recently in the Oregon State Legislature, but has also worked on campaigns, in arts administration, and in college admissions. Her policy interests include education policy, women's issues, and political theory.